*A separate charge applies. LDW waives the renter's responsibility for all damage to the Thrifty rental car, regardless of fault, provided the renter is not in violation of the Rental Agreement.

†Liability protection limits may vary by state. Ask your rental representative.

‡Premium Emergency Roadside Service option to be purchased at time of rental. The cost, coverage, provider, availability and terms of PERS may vary from location to location. Please inquire at the counter for additional information. By signing at the beginning of the rental that you accept the PERS option, you will be charged an additional daily charge, as specified on the rental agreement, for each full and/or partial day you rent the car.

§Personal Protection Package that includes both Personal Accident Insurance and Personal Effects Coverage. Personal Accident Insurance includes up to $2,500 for accidental medical expenses. In the State of New York, Personal Accident Insurance will provide the renter up to $3,500 in coverage for accidental medical expenses. Personal Effects Coverage includes up to $600/passenger and up to $1,800 per rental. In the State of New York, Personal Effects Coverage will provide the renter up to $500/passenger for up to $1,500 for loss or damaged personal effects. The plans and options listed are brief summaries of optional services, and you can request more information from a Thrifty representative. All protection plans do not apply in the event of prohibited use of the car. Protection plans are available for an additional daily charge as noted on the Rental Agreement. See available brochure for further details of coverage, including exclusions and limitations.
